Ignite Change with a People Lab

Sometimes IT organizations struggle with driving change and transformation—it seems like people are always pushing back!
Our People Lab is a hands-on, skill-building experience that focuses on building buy-in and getting results.

Allows project teams to work an active initiative while learning new tactics.

Includes 4, 2-hour team (workshop-style) sessions + 10 coaching/consulting hours.

Price: $15,000
(travel expenses may apply)

"This framework will help energize any team to successfully undertake bold initiatives!"

-Rama Dhuwaraha
Associate Vice Chancellor & Chief Information Officer,
University of North Texas System

"This approach is not theory. It's clearly based on hard-won wisdom through years of experience."

-Jeff Cann
Chief Strategist & Chief Information Officer
Encore Electric

"This workshop is a MUST HAVE. I recommend it for any company implementing a change."

-Dianna Anderson
